

Support for the State of Israel is a classroom activity.

Jewish day schools give our children a deep understanding of Israel's importance. In Jewish day schools, Israel is not taught as a history or social studies lesson, but as central to our lives as Jews. Students learn that Israel is a national homeland for all Jews, a sovereign Jewish state with an effective army committed to protecting it, a historic and current center of Torah study, and the sole democracy in the Middle East. More than anything, our children develop a sense of kinship with their Israeli brothers and sisters.

The AVI CHAI Foundation is a proud supporter of the Jewish day schools listed on these pages, and we are gratified that these schools in your area are showing their support for Israel in the classroom. These schools endorse the following statement as an expression of their philosophy:

“The creation of the State of Israel is one of the seminal events in Jewish history. Recognizing the significance of the State and its national institutions, we seek to instill in our students an attachment to the State of Israel as well as a sense of responsibility for its welfare.”

In today's difficult times, Israel needs all of our support. Now is the time for us to stand behind Israel in the classroom, in our thoughts, and in our actions.
